

KEEP THE Democratic MAJORITY!

Former Gov. Tim Kaine has called the Virginia state Senate “the backstop that keeps the wild pitches from the House from hitting the fans.” Democrats’ slim two-seat majority in the state Senate is the firewall against reckless, right-wing Republican policies.

Every year the Republican-majority house passes bills that would restrict access to healthcare, especially reproductive rights; attack science, cut funding for our public schools, expand the use of handguns, restrict voting rights, gut environmental protection policies, force local officials to enforce federal immigration rules, and reduce negotiated pensions for state workers.

Republican Senate candidates for 2011 have proposed:

- ABOLISHING the Virginia Department of Environmental Quality,
- ABOLISHING the U.S. Department of Education,
- ELIMINATING corporate taxes and the income tax.
- MANDATORY drug testing for all welfare recipients.

“We have to kill bill after bill sent from the extreme right-wing house and we are happy to do it, but we must keep the Democratic majority in the Senate to continue doing that,” said Sen. George Barker, 39th District.

Only your vote will keep the Senate in Democratic hands!

Democratic State Senate: Last Line of Defense Against an Extremist Agenda

Northern Virginians need an experienced legislator with a proven record of getting things done representing them in our state Senate. I am a proven progressive who is ready to fight for our schools, our environment, and against the extremist agenda of state Atty. Gen. Ken Cuccinelli. My experience in the General Assembly has given me the knowledge and relationships needed to hit the ground running on day one.

I’m running for re-election because there is work I want to see completed including improvements to the Rt. 1 corridor in Fairfax and Prince William Counties, execution of the wounded warriors’ program, and several health care initiatives including setting up Virginia’s health benefits program exchange.

Democrats took back the State Senate in 2007. This year’s campaign will be about maintaining a majority in the Senate to keep balance in the legislature!

As your state senator, I know that hard work gets results. That’s why I was one of only two legislators to pass 20 bills this year, including measures to improve schools, create jobs, eliminate dating violence, and provide tax relief for the elderly and disabled. I’m asking for your support so that I can continue to work hard each day to make sure Virginia remains the best state in the country in which to do business, go to school, and raise a family.
