

Fairfax County Democratic Committee

Resolution

Support Increase in Virginia Minimum Wage

Whereas, 23 states and the District of Columbia have minimum wages above the federal minimum wage of $7.25 per hour;

Whereas, Virginia follows the federal minimum wage that has not increased since 2009;

Whereas, according to the Bureau of Labor Statistics, 76% of all minimum wage workers are over the age of 20;

Whereas, a full-time minimum wage worker in Fairfax County would make less than the Federal Poverty level for just a family of two;

Whereas, multiple academic studies show minimum wage increases do not kill jobs even during periods of high unemployment;

Whereas, according to the Pew Research Center in March, 2014 73% of the American public support an increase in the federal minimum wage;

Resolved, that the Fairfax County Democratic Committee urge all candidates for public office in Fairfax County to support any and all efforts to increase the minimum wage for workers in Fairfax County and the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Fairfax County Democratic Committee

Resolution

Support Increase in Virginia Minimum Wage

Whereas, 23 states and the District of Columbia have minimum wages above the federal minimum wage of $7.25 per hour;

Whereas, Virginia follows the federal minimum wage that has not increased since 2009;

Whereas, according to the Bureau of Labor Statistics, 76% of all minimum wage workers are over the age of 20;

Whereas, a full-time minimum wage worker in Fairfax County would make less than the Federal Poverty level for just a family of two;

Whereas, multiple academic studies show minimum wage increases do not kill jobs even during periods of high unemployment;

Whereas, according to the Pew Research Center in March, 2014 73% of the American public support an increase in the federal minimum wage;

Resolved, that the Fairfax County Democratic Committee urge all candidates for public office in Fairfax County to support any and all efforts to increase the minimum wage for workers in Fairfax County and the Commonwealth of Virginia.