

RESOLUTION

COMMITTEE ON NATIONAL AFFAIRS

WHEREAS, The Fairfax County Democratic Committee believes the Presidential election of 1988 is crucial in the history of the United States, and

WHEREAS, the Fairfax County Democratic Committee believes the highest priority is electing a Democratic President in 1988, and

WHEREAS, it is the conviction of the Fairfax County Democratic Committee that all of the Democrats now offering themselves for the Democratic nomination are superior to any of those in the opposite party, it is, therefore,

RESOLVED: That the Fairfax County Democratic Committee asks all Democratic Presidential candidates to conduct their campaigns for the nomination in a way which will preserve the unity of the Democratic Party and that will not attack the persons or integrity of their rivals.

It is further RESOLVED: That the Fairfax County Democratic Committee calls on all Democrats in Virginia to conduct their campaigns for their favorite candidates in the same manner.

It is further RESOLVED: That the Fairfax County Democratic Committee asks all candidates who send staff to work in their campaigns in Virginia to admonish them to carry on their assignments in such a way that they will not inject any divisive spirit among Democrats and so that there can be a united effort to elect our Democratic nominee after the 1988 Democratic National Convention.
