

The Fairfax County Democratic Committee Celebrates the Life of Bob Mansker

WHEREAS,

Bob Mansker, a cherished member of our community, passed away on Tuesday, May 7th, at Goodwin House Hospice, following a courageous battle with liver cancer;

He was a beloved member of the Mason District Democratic Committee (MDDC) and the Fairfax County Democratic Committee (FCDC).

He was born in Houston, Texas, and was deeply influenced by his upbringing on country roads and Baptist preaching, which instilled in him values of kindness, humor, and political engagement;

Bob's professional journey led him to Washington, D.C., where he served with distinction as press secretary for Congressman Martin Frost and later as Deputy Public Printer at the Joint Committee on Printing until his retirement;

Served FCDC as our parliamentarian for at least a decade and helped elect many Democrats in our community;

He became active members of Rock Spring United Church of Christ, drawn by its open and affirming welcome to the LGBTQ+ community;

Bob Mansker's life was a testament to the power of kindness, humor, and unwavering dedication to the causes he believed in, leaving a legacy of love, community service, and advocacy;

Therefore, be it resolved, by the Fairfax County Democratic Committee,

- The Fairfax County Democratic Committee celebrates the life of Bob Mansker, honoring his contributions to our community, his professional achievements, and the love and warmth he brought to those around him;
- Directing that a copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation to Bob's family as an expression of our condolences and gratitude for his service.
